Questions

1. Why is it so difficult to address or come to grips with what's happening in our internal world?
2. Where have you seen your pursuit of a good thing morphing into enslavement? What illusion or false god still appears attractive?
3. Nothing is wasted by God. How have you seen God use or redeem previous experiences for good?
4. All leaders will lead stubborn or foolish people at some point. What can you learn from shepherding that can help you in your leadership?
