

Paul Phillips: 910-470-0870

Embrace Your Purpose

Titus 2:11-14 :

“For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works.”

Paul Phillips: 910-470-0870

Embrace Your Purpose

Titus 2:11-14 :

“For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation for all people, training us to renounce ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright, and godly lives in the present age, waiting for our blessed hope, the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave himself for us to redeem us from all lawlessness and to purify for himself a people for his own possession who are zealous for good works.”

Questions

1. Are you aiming at the right target for your life purpose? How would you know?
2. According to the Apostle Paul, in order to really thrive in purpose, we must first exercise some measures of self-control. Where is there a weakness in the wall around your soul that if not addressed might disastrously flood your life?
3. Your purpose is to be in partnership with God, doing “good works.” When you go to work do you consider yourself in partnership with God? How or where are you doing “good work” to create beauty, space and opportunity for human flourishing?

Questions

1. Are you aiming at the right target for your life purpose? How would you know?
2. According to the Apostle Paul, in order to really thrive in purpose, we must first exercise some measures of self-control. Where is there a weakness in the wall around your soul that if not addressed might disastrously flood your life?
3. Your purpose is to be in partnership with God, doing “good works.” When you go to work do you consider yourself in partnership with God? How or where are you doing “good work” to create beauty, space and opportunity for human flourishing?