The Shadow of Futility

The Lie: My work doesn't matter.

The Truth: You have a kingdom assignment.

1. Futility is inevitable if your flight plan is wrong.

2. You bring God's meaning to your work rather than derive your meaning from work.

- Not a choice
- But an answering

3. You have a God-assigned kingdom MOS.

"We have become his poetry, a re-created people that will fulfill the destiny he had given each of us, for we are joined to Jesus, the Anointed One. Even before we were born, God planned in advance our destiny and the good works we would to do fulfill it."

– Ephesians 2:10

4. Avoid quiet quitting on God's assigned MOS.

Questions

1. Do I have clarity on my kingdom MOS? Is there an arena in the broken world that I am passionate about, I have access to, and gifting for?
2. Am I listening for my assignment? If I'm unsure at this season of my life what my kingdom MOS is how am I listening for God's assignment?
3. Do I expect guidance? God is orchestrating your life story. Are you expecting God's guidance? What would this look like in your life?
4. Am I quiet quitting on my kingdom MOS? This is always a temptation and is in some contexts justified by the wider world. How might I be avoiding what I should be doing?
