Questions

1. How do you get help to see yourself accurately? What's your greatest challenge in allowing Jesus/The Bible to have the final word about you and you live your life?

We live in a Laodicean culture—wealthy with a strong appetite for the world.

2. How would you know if wealth was having a blinding effect on your life and making you “lukewarm” or apathetic to real spiritual development?

3. What's your current spiritual temperature? What practices or habits could you develop to be more zealous for Jesus rather than for the world?
